DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Further Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Corporation of the City of Trail is the holder of certificates approving its undertakings relative to the diversion and use of water from Cambridge Creek, Violin Lake, and McQuarrie Creek for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the said Corporation has made application to the Comptroller of Water Rights for a licence to authorize the diversion of 2,500 gallons of water a day from George Creek, in Nelson Water District, for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the Corporation has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking in respect of the said application:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Corporation's petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Corporation of the City of Trail relative to the diversion and use of 2,500 gallons of water a day from George Creek for waterworks purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition of the Corporation filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on November 8th, 1929, is hereby approved, subject to the provisions of the "Water Act" and to the following terms and conditions:—

The construction of the works necessary to divert and use the waters of George Creek shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights.

The territory within which the Corporation of the City of Trail may distribute and sell the water that may be diverted from George Creek shall comprise the corporate limits of the said city.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

Rule 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property or other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the paid fees shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principal, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each paper; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bills shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

PRIVATE BILL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session, on behalf of the City of Vancouver, for an Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921," in the manner following, to provide by such amendments for the following powers, that is to say:—

1. To amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act" by repealing section 3 of chapter 58 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1928, being an amendment to section 8 of the said Act, which provides that no person shall be entitled to be entered twice on the voters' list, nor to vote more than once for Aldermen, Mayor, Park Commissioners, or School Trustees in any one ward or district.

2. To amend the said Act to provide that the Council may by resolution or by-law appoint an Assessment Commission or Board of Valuers, to be composed of not less than three nor more than five members, one member of whom may be the Assessment Commissioner for the time being of the city, to perform all the duties of the Assessment Commissioner in respect to making a valuation of all rateable property in the city. The Chairman of such Commission to be appointed by the Council.

3. To amend subsection (2) of section 46 of said Act to provide that all Crown lands which are held under lease or agreed to be sold, granted, or conveyed, the fee of which is in the Crown, but which are held or occupied otherwise than by or on behalf of the Crown, shall be liable to assessment and taxation while so held or occupied, and the interest of any person therein while so held shall be liable to assessment and taxation accordingly.

4. To amend the said Act to provide that where tax-able lands become the property of the city and are sold by the city to a purchaser under agreement of sale, that upon default being made in the payment of any instalment or interest thereon it shall be lawful for the city to serve notice to the effect that if the amount of the instalments and interest in default are not paid within ninety days from the date of the mailing or serving of such notice, the purchaser's interest in such land shall absolutely cease and determine, and the land shall immediately become revested in the city.

5. To amend section 103 of said Act by repealing section 7 of chapter 58 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1928, which requires that an owner of property in more than one ward shall be entered on the voters' list in the ward in which he has the largest amount of real property in value, and where an owner is also a tenant, he shall vote only as an owner.

6. To amend section 135 of said Act to provide for the compounding of interest on sinking funds.

7. To amend section 163 of said Act to provide for the improvement or maintenance of any portion of a boulevard and for assessing and charging the cost thereof against the land fronting or abutting thereon where such work is, in the opinion of the Council, advisable or necessary to beautify or maintain such portion of boulevard in keeping with other portions of such boulevard in the same block already improved.

8. To amend said Act to provide for prohibiting, controlling, or regulating encroachments on any street or lane for footings or foundations of buildings, and for entering into agreements respecting the use of any portion of any street, lane, or public place for any such purpose, and for making a charge or rent therefor:

9. To amend said Act to provide for prohibiting or licensing, regulating, and controlling all persons carrying on the business of detective agencies and bailiffs, and providing as a condition of any such licence that a bond of indemnity satisfactory to the Council shall be furnished and maintained during the currency of such licence.

10. To amend subsection (127) of section 163 of said Act to provide for the licensing or taxing of persons carrying on the business of a distillery.

11. To amend subsection (134) of section 163 of said Act to provide for prohibiting, controlling, or regulating, and for defining, classifying, differentiating, and discriminating in respect of the various vehicles and classes and kinds thereof using or which may use the public streets, and for prohibiting any kind or class from using the streets at all or between specified hours as may be provided in any by-law.

12. To amend subsection (138) of section 163 of said Act to provide for regulating, controlling, or prohibiting the parking of all varieties of vehicles, including metered and non-metered taxicabs, buses, and all or any vehicles for hire as provided in any such by-law.

13. To amend said Act to provide for the removal and detention or impounding of any vehicle or other obstruction unlawfully occupying any portion of any street, and for recovering from the owners all expenses or charges in connection therewith, and for imposing a rent or charge during detention thereof, and for power of sale of such vehicle in default of payment of such expenses and charges.

14. To amend subsection (151) of section 163 of said Act to provide for prohibiting and regulating signs or other advertising matter on telephone, telegraph, or public-utility poles or posts or on any other erection in any public place or otherwise.

15. To amend subsection (170) of section 163 of said Act to provide for the compulsory vacating by the occupants of any building which, in the opinion of the Building Inspector, may be in a dangerous condition, on the serving of notice on the owner, agent, or tenant, and by posting such notice on the building; and authorizing the Building Inspector to remove the contents of such building at the expense of the owner or occupant thereof.

16. To amend subsection (264) of section 163 of said Act to provide for prohibiting, defining, restricting, and regulating junk-yards, assembling or disassembling plants or yards in which building and other materials, machinery and vehicles, wood-working or mixing business or industry is stored, maintained, or carried on, and limiting the areas in which such yards or plants may or may not be established, maintained, or carried on in the city.

17. To amend the said Act to provide for the bestowing of honour or the freedom of the city upon any distinguished person for national or local service, and conferring on such person all the qualifications required by the Act of persons to be nominated and elected to hold the office of Mayor, and to place the name of such person on the voters' list to be eligible to vote at an election for Mayor and Aldermen.

18. To amend the said Act to provide by by-law for the prevention, growth, and spreading of codling-moths and any and all other insect pests, and for compelling the destruction of such pests, and providing for the entry upon property for such purposes, and for levying any cost in connection therewith on the owner at the discretion of the Council, or as a charge upon the lands affected and for collection of the same.

19. To amend subsection (290a) of section 163 of said Act to provide, on a two-thirds vote of the Council, for the disposal of any real property vested in the city where the value of such property on the certificate of the Assessor does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

20. To amend subsection (302) of section 163 of said Act to provide for increasing the indemnity of Aldermen to a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum.

21. To amend subsections (22) and (24) of section 172 of said Act to provide that where land is required for the opening of a lane or the widening of a street, the filing in the Land Registry Office of a copy of the by-law or resolution for expropriation thereof shall thereupon vest the title in the city, subject to the provisions of the Act in respect of compensation therefor.

22. To amend subsection (2) of section 176 of said Act by striking out the word "concrete" in such subsection.

23. To amend the said Act to provide for carrying out any local improvement work on one side of any street only, and for assessing the cost of any such work as a special assessment upon the real property abutting on that side of the street only upon which such work is so constructed.

24. To amend the said Act to provide for indemnification of any member of the Police Force where an action or prosecution is brought against him, and costs are necessarily incurred or damages recovered, if the Board of Police Commissioners approve and recommend such payment or indemnity.

25. To amend the said Act to provide for the raising by by-law, without submission to the electors, of such sum as may be required to pay the city's share of any work ordered to be done or constructed under order of a Court, or of the Board of Railway Commissioners, or any public utility board or commission.

26. To amend the said Act by repealing section 320 relating to the repair of streets.

27. To amend the said Act to provide that where the Council has authority to direct or require, by by-law or resolution, that any matter or thing be done, the Council may direct that, in default of its being done, the matter or thing may be done at the expense of the persons directed or required to do the same, and the city may recover the expense thereof by action in any Court or in like manner as overdue taxes.

28. To amend section 84 of said Act to provide that the Council may in its discretion authorize or effect the exchange of any tax-sale land for any other parcel of land on such terms as may be deemed expedient.

29. To amend the said Act to provide that the assessment roll and tax roll of the city may be recorded by such system as shall be approved by the Council, and may include a card-index or loose-leaf ledger system, in the discretion of the Council.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 20th day of November, 1929.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRIVATE BILL.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session by the Corporation of the City of Victoria for an Act (to be known as the "Victoria City Act, 1930") providing for the following matters, and giving to the said Corporation and the Municipal Council thereof the following powers, namely:—

1. Repealing sections 6 and 9 of "Victoria City Act, 1920," thereby enabling licence-holders to have their names placed on the municipal voters' list without first having to pay road-tax.

2. Amending section 12 of "Victoria City Act, 1922," for the purpose of clarifying the powers of the Council in regulating or prohibiting signs, billboards, and hoardings on private land or improvements thereon.

3. Providing that the hours of polling on by-laws requiring the assent of the electors shall be from 9 o'clock a.m. to 7 o'clock p.m. on the day of polling (instead of from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. as required by the "Municipal Act").

4. Fixing the date of the annual tax sale as the first Monday in November of each year (instead of the 30th day of September in each year as required by the "Municipal Act").

5. Requiring that the authority of an agent appointed by a corporation for the purpose of voting on behalf of said corporation at any municipal election shall be filed with the Municipal Clerk on or before October 31st in any year.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 30th day of November, 1929.

(2.) To negotiate, arrange for, and set a wage scale or scales and working conditions for the various classes of employees engaged in and about work carried on in connection with the shipping business of the said seaports of British Columbia as conditions may require from time to time:

(3.) To investigate, adjust, and settle any dispute which may arise between persons engaged as aforesaid in and about any work in connection with the shipping business of the said seaports and any member or members of the society:

(d.) To provide a hall or halls and refreshment and rest rooms with baths and other facilities for its members and for members of other companies, organizations, or societies with which it may carry on business, and to permit same to be used for such purposes and upon such terms as the Company shall think fit, and to carry on the business of restaurant-keepers, caterers, and storekeepers, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in, by wholesale or retail, all goods, stores, and merchandise necessary and incidental to the carrying-on of the above objects:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, as a going concern, the business, undertaking, and assets of The Shipping Federation of British Columbia, a society incorporated under the "Societies Act" of British Columbia, subject to its liabilities, and to undertake to assume, pay and discharge all such liabilities or contractual obligations of the said society as the Company may think fit, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the capital stock of this Company, to be allotted to the vendors or their nominees:

(f.) To promote safety in the employment of water-front workers and of all employees of the Company or of the Company's members, and for this purpose to employ safety engineers, and to adopt, put into effect, and operate all modern methods and devices to the attainment of the same:

(g.) Without limiting the generality of the powers which by section 22 of the "Companies Act" are made ancillary or incidental to this memorandum, the Company's objects and powers are also:—

(1.) To construct and erect buildings:

(2.) To purchase, build, charter, hire, or otherwise acquire motor-vehicles, ships, vessels, tug-boats, lighters, scows, barges, aeroplanes, flying-boats, and the like, or any shares or interest therein, or shares of stock in companies owning, operating, or dealing in same, together with all machinery, plant, and equipment necessary and incidental thereto, and to maintain and operate the same or any part thereof, and to transport passengers and goods, and to build, lease, hire, or otherwise acquire ways, shops, plant, and equipment necessary for the building, maintaining, repairing, and operating of the same or any part thereof:

(3.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire wharves, warehouses, hangars, garages, and stores:

(4.) To hold, maintain, improve, develop, and operate, or to lease, charter, hire, sell, or otherwise deal with and turn to account, any of the Company's real or personal property:

(5.) To sell, exchange, or dispose of any of the Company's holdings or assets, real or personal, and either for cash consideration or for consideration of shares or debentures or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, or partly in the one and partly in the other:

(6.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money by a mortgage upon any part of the Company's real or personal property:

(7.) To insure with any other company against losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect this Company:

(h.) To afford to all its members, and to such other persons as may from time to time be determined, any or all of the services which the Company is authorized to provide or carry on, and charge for the same, fees, assessments, or otherwise, and to enforce payment and collection thereof.

farmers, printers, ship-owners, carriage-builders, carriers, merchants, building and general contractors; and to buy, sell, manufacture, repair, fit out, convert, alter, let on hire, and deal in, own, operate, and manage boilers, engines, metals, machinery, implements, rolling-stock, automobiles, bicycles, aeroplanes, aircraft, ships, vessels, tugs, boats, scows, barges, and their parts and accessories and supplies, and hardware of all kinds:

(c.) To undertake and execute any contracts for works involving the supply or use of any machinery or metalwork, and to carry out any ancillary or other works comprised in such contracts:

(d.) To carry on the business of a general merchant in all its branches, and in particular to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in merchandise, goods, consumable articles, chattels and effects of all kinds, whether wholesale or retail, and to transact every kind of mercantile and agency business:

(e.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase or lease or otherwise of water records or water privileges, and to divert, take, and carry away water from any streams, rivers, lakes, or springs, and to render water and water-power available for use, application and distribution, and to operate and carry on the business of a power company, and to construct and operate works under the "Water Act" or otherwise, and acquire and use all privileges that may be obtained under the said Act, and to supply and utilize water and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power or electricity or compressed air, and to use, sell, and supply, lease, or otherwise dispose of light, heat, water, steam, compressed air, electricity, and any other form of power:

(f.) To manufacture, produce, and trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any letters patent, concessions, licences, inventions, monopolies, rights, or privileges:

(g.) To act as commission, consignment, and general agents:

(h.) To carry on any other business (manufacturing, mercantile, financial, or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of any of the Company's property and rights for the time being:

(i.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, may be used as independent objects and shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS ACT."

(CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 278.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The United Fishermen's Co-operative Association" has this day been incorporated as an Association under the "Co-operative Associations Act" and that the denomination of its shares is ten dollars each.

The registered office of the Association will be situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirtieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Association are:—

(a.) To promote the interests of commercial fishermen in British Columbia and to furnish them with supplies at a minimum cost; provided, however, that the Association shall not carry on the business of catching, transporting, packing, buying, selling, or dealing in fish or fish products except for bait:

(b.) To manufacture, import, export, buy, sell, and deal in fishing supplies and general merchandise of every kind and description whatsoever:

(c.) To carry on the business of a merchant in all its branches, both wholesale and retail, and to transact agency and brokerage business:

(d.) To acquire and operate ships and boats of every kind for the purposes of the Association:

(e.) To lend to its members the money of the Association not immediately required on the security of real and personal property:

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information or any invention which may be capable of being used for the purpose of the Association, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Association; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(g.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement to share profits, union of interests, co-operation, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company or association carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Association is authorized to carry on or engage in:

(h.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities that may seem conducive to the objects of the Association or any of them, and to obtain any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Association may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and to oppose any proceedings which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice the interests of the Association:

(i.) To borrow, raise, or secure money with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, either by a charge on or deposit of any part or all of the property of the Association or without such charge; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Association's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Association, and other negotiable instruments, subject always to the provisions of the "Co-operative Associations Act":

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Association among the members in specie:

(k.) To pay out of the funds of the Association all the expenses of or incidental to the registration and advertising of the Association, and to remunerate any persons or corporations for services rendered for placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the capital of the Association or any of its debentures or other securities, or in or about the formation of the Association or the conduct of its business:

(l.) To procure the registration of the Association in any country or place:

(m.) To do any or all of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(n.) The objects set forth in any subclause hereof shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in any way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, but may be carried out in as ample a manner and construed as in as wide a sense as if each of the paragraphs defined the objects of a separate and distinct association. 7785-de5

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on the business of a light and power company in all its branches, and in particular to carry on the business of electricians, mechanical engineering, suppliers of electricity, both wholesale and retail, for the purposes of light, heat, motive or other power or otherwise, and manufacturers of and dealers in apparatus, conveniences, and things required for or capable of being used in connection with the generation, distribution, accumulation, employment, and use of electricity:

(b.) To generate, accumulate, distribute, use, sell, and supply electricity, light, and power to and for mines, factories, cities, towns, villages, streets, lanes, markets, theatres, houses, buildings, and places, both public and private:

(c.) To generate, accumulate, distribute, use, sell, and supply electrical energy for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, lighting, or any other purposes for which electrical energy may now or hereafter be supplied, sold, or used:

(d.) To construct, acquire, lay down, establish, fix, carry out, and maintain and operate all necessary cables, pipes, wires, lines, accumulators, transformers, lamps, poles, water-pipes, and works:

(e.) To construct and acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and hold, maintain, and operate, electrical works and power-houses (whether generating electricity and power by oil or gas engines, steam-engines, water-power, or otherwise), engines, generators, turbines, dams, reservoirs, penstocks, equipment, buildings, real property, and works of every nature and description used or necessary in connection therewith:

(f.) To carry on the business of manufacturing, assembling, operating, distributing, purchasing, selling, and dealing in all kinds of electrical and mechanical equipment, apparatus, instruments, machinery, devices, appliances, supplies, and conveniences, including all parts therefor and all things adapted to be used in the construction thereof, upon or in connection therewith, or in the operation thereof:

(g.) To build, construct, and acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to hold, operate, and maintain, shops, stores, and warehouses and buildings for the sale, supply, and storage of electrical and mechanical equipment, apparatus, instruments, machinery, devices, appliances, supplies, and conveniences, including all parts therefor and all things adapted to be used in the construction thereof, upon or in connection therewith, or in the operation thereof:

(h.) To carry on the business of electrical, mechanical, chemical, heating, construction, and general engineers; provided that the Company as such shall not carry on in the Province of British Columbia the practice of professional engineering as defined by the "Engineering Act" of the said Province, but must employ a professional engineer in accordance with the said Act to carry on such practice:

(i.) To acquire and hold water records and licences, and to exercise all franchises, powers, privileges, and rights which may be held or enjoyed by a power company under the "Water Act" of British Columbia and amendments thereto:

(j.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire and hold any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(k.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(l.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, undertaking, assets, privileges, franchises, and liabilities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, and in particular those of C. O. Bristol, of Williams Lake, British Columbia, and to pay for same either in cash or shares or debentures of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares or debentures of the Company:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(n.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(o.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to sell or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(q.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(r.) To establish agencies and branches and to adopt such means of making known the products and commodities (including electricity and power) of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(s.) To lend money to any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, having dealings with the Company or with whom the Company proposes to have dealings, and to guarantee the contracts of any such person or company:

(t.) To raise and assist in raising money for, and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, guarantee of debentures or other securities or otherwise, any company, wheresoever incorporated, with which the Company may have business relations, and to guarantee the contracts of any such company:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(v.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(w.) Subject to section 123 of the "Companies Act," to remunerate any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions for, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or in the conduct of or the sale or disposition of its business; provided the remuneration for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions for, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company shall be by way of commission, and such rate of commission shall not exceed 10 per centum of the nominal or par value thereof:

(x.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(y.) To carry on any business capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

In the Matter of the Farmers Supply Company, Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given that at a general meeting of the members of the above Company held at Salmon Arm, B.C., on the 7th day of November, 1929, the following special resolution was duly passed:—

"That the Company be wound up voluntarily."

And at the same meeting D. Blair Smith, of the City of Vancouver, B.C., was appointed liquidator for the purpose of such winding-up.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 12th day of November, 1929.

7727-no21 D. BLAIR SMITH,
Liquidator.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In the Matter of the Estate of David Doig, late of the City of Victoria, B.C., Deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that, pursuant to section 28 of the "Trustee Act," that all persons having claims against the estate of the said David Doig, who died on or about the 8th day of June, 1929, at said City of Victoria, are required on or before the 1st day of December, 1929, to send by post prepaid or deliver to Arthur W. Wolfenden and James B. Pattullo, the executors of the Last Will and Testament of the said deceased, in care of The British Columbia Land & Investment Agency, Limited, 922 Government Street, Victoria, B.C., their names, addresses, and descriptions and full particulars of their claims, duly verified, and the securities (if any) held by them.

And take notice that after such last-mentioned date the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice, and that the said executors will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have been received by them at the time of such distribution.

Dated the 30th day of October, 1929.

7587-no7 PATTULLO & TOBIN,
Solicitors for the said Executors.
